

EUSTIS HOMELESS RESOURCE GUIDE

Giving Eustis Homeless Community
A Hand to Get Up!

The Eustis Homeless Resource Guide is a guide focused on services for individuals experiencing homelessness in the Eustis, FL area. The purpose of this Resource Guide is to connect individuals and service providers to valuable and relevant community resources in Eustis. This Resource Guide is a smaller version of the Lake County Community Resource Guide (www.lakecountycommunityresourceguide.com). For telephone assistance to help find a solution to your specific problem, contact Be Free Lake at 352-383-2099.

THE OPEN DOOR-----352-589-8157
Drop in center for the homeless

Address: 115 Citrus Ave., EUSTIS

Services: The Open Door is the product. A place that doesn't require anything of the homeless individual but allows the individual to reconnect. Service can be in the ability to take a shower, wash clothes, use a computer, call a family member or talk to a trained LifeStream professional to obtain information on social/medical services. Patrons will be allowed to use the address/phone number as a mailing address or contact number when filling out job applications. Lockers will be provided to keep belongings safe. It is neither a food bank nor a clothes closet, although information and direction will be provided to obtain them. Although not an overnight facility, it is hoped that this will be the initial steppingstone in providing an overnight shelter for our area in the future.

Hours: Mon.-Fri. 9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. Web: <https://www.lsbcc.net/open-door/>
